

What is Fact?
What is Fiction?
FREE answers to all your questions.

Parents,

If you have been told that your child needs additional services to be successful in school, you might want to attend this workshop. The Hazelwood Parent Advisory Council and the Early Childhood Diagnostic team will present an overview of the process used to screen children who may qualify for special education services. There will be time for questions at the end of the presentation. Registration is not required. All parents and patrons are invited to attend.

HAZ-PAC

HSD and SSD Working Together