Course Descriptions

Course Description and Goals

- ☞ French 1 is an introduction to some basic topics such as greetings, describing people, hobbies, likes, dislikes, family relationship, weather, and seasons. Students taking this class will be also exposed to Francophone cultures
- ☞ French 1 students will work on activities to help them improve their speaking, listening, reading, and writing skills.

LEARN & HAVE FUN EVERY DAY!

- ☞ Showcase acceptance, kindness, be prepared for class/learning and ask questions.
- ☞ Respect and listen to your classmates and teacher. Comply with academic honesty.
- ☞ Raise your hand to speak, and be ready to share new ideas during class discussions
- ☞ Refrain from using Chromebook if it is NOT required
- ☞ Use technology devices when required or recommended by the teacher.

MAKE GOOD CHOICES

Yes, let us come up with trust, optimism, and confidence: It is my expectation to see all students behaving like heroes or role models to earn Certificate of Excellence.

Here are the levels of consequences:

- ☞ Verbal Warning in class
- ☞ Personal meeting with the student
- ☞ Communication with parents & administration
- ☞ Discipline referral

BE A GREAT MEMBER OF OUR CLASS COMMUNITY

Be a legend in French class

A+ is my Goal...

☞ While taking French 1 novice low and novice mid, students earn skills by working on basic activities related to tests, quizzes, oral repetition, dialogue, storytelling, projects-based learning, reading, and written exercises.

The grading policy is set up given some specific categories as follows:

- ☞ Tests 70% (Speaking tests (interviews), Chapter tests, Projects such as PBL)
  - ☞ Classwork 30% (Classwork, Quizzes, participation, homework, Do-now, exit slips)
- You will have homework TWICE a week. Any homework is DUE THE NEXT CLASS.

TURNING IN MY ASSIGNMENTS IS LEADING ME TO... GROWTH!!!

LATE WORK POLICY

☞ Whether it is due to family issue, medical reason, field trip or any other academic/social reason, students have THREE days after they return to turn in or submit any missing assignment.

☞ It's YOUR responsibility to communicate with the teacher for more details regarding the missing assignment (s), directions, and extra due date (new deadline). Please feel free to meet with me if you have any questions.
