

Nettie Collins-Hart receives a North County Churches Uniting for Racial Harmony and Justice Education Award

Nettie Collins-Hart received a North County Churches Uniting for Racial Harmony and Justice Education Award. She is superintendent of the Hazelwood School District. The award recognizes her commitment to racial harmony and justice along with service to her community. Under her leadership, the district opened two thematic schools, Hazelwood East Middle School/8th Grade Center accelerated program and the Hazelwood Opportunity Center. ONLINE ARTICLE

<http://www.stlamerican.com/edition>

St. Louis American
St. Louis City County
St. Louis, MO
Circulation: 70,200
Frequency: Weekly
January 8, 2019

Celebrations

Congratulations to Ashley Gerald, first grade teacher at Lusher Elementary School, who has been named the 2018-2019 Hazelwood School District Teacher of the Year. Ms. Gerald was surprised with the news in her classroom last month by Superintendent Dr. Nettie Collins-Hart and Assistant Superintendent Juan Cordova. She is a Hazelwood Central High School graduate and has taught at Lusher Elementary for the past four years. She began teaching in the Hazelwood School District in 2007 and taught previously at both Grannemann and Keeven Elementary.

St. Louis American
St. Louis City County
St. Louis, MO
Circulation: 70,200
Frequency: Weekly
January 10, 2019