

THE ST. LOUIS AMERICAN

stlamerican.com

Alpha Kappa Alpha Gamma Omega Chapter 37th Annual Fashionetta Scholarship Cotillion (Virtual)

The Alpha Kappa Alpha Sorority, Incorporated® Gamma Omega Chapter presented its 37th Annual (Virtual) FASHIONETTA™ Scholarship Presentation on Sunday, May 30, 2021. Event and souvenir journal presently available @AKA-GOSTL.com.

Ten amazing young ladies were presented: Lauren Agnew, Torriona Baker, Landis Bingham, Kristyn Bills, Victoria Brown, Jordan Davis, Lauryn Donovan, Fatou Guisse, Amour Jones and Lauren White.

FASHIONETTA™ is a trademark of Alpha Kappa Alpha Sorority, Incorporated® and a fundraising activity for the chapter's philanthropic endeavors of the Ivy Alliance Foundation (IAF). Debutantes participated in an eight month virtual experience which included, college preparation workshops, community service, entrepreneurial workshops, church service, Mother Daughter Luncheon and a slumber party. Debutantes received over $55,000 in monetary and scholarship awards at the Virtual Presentation.

Other debutante participants and college choices for fall of 2021

Lauren Agnew – North Carolina A & T State University: major in Computer Science

Kristyn Bills – Alabama A & M: major in Computer Science

Victoria Brown – University of Missouri Kansas City: major in elementary education

Lauryn Donovan – Howard University: major in Political Science

Lauren White – University of Arkansas at Pine Bluff: major in nursing

Chairman for the Virtual FASHIONETTA™ 2021 is Ruby Grady. Co-Chairmen are Michelle Sanders and Carla Baker Moore. Lonita Blackman, President and Bethery Williams, Vice President of The Gamma Omega Chapter and Ivy Alliance Foundation.

CHS 2021 Alums

<http://www.stlamerican.com/eedition>

Lauren Agnew

Lauren White

July 15, 2021

MLB Draft

In non-Cardinals draftees, Conor Dryer, a pitcher at Central Missouri State who went to high school at Rockwood Summit, was chosen in the 17th round by Tampa Bay. The Rays chose another college player from St. Louis in the 18th round, picking Kenny Piper, a catcher at Columbia College who went to Hazelwood Central.

Seth Halvorsen, who was transferring from Missouri to Tennessee, was picked in the 19th round by Philadelphia He missed his first season after having Tommy John surgery and played outfield in 2020. He returned to the mound in 2021.

https://www.stltoday.com/sports/baseball/professional/cardinal-beat/mlb-draft-follow-the-cardinals-day-3-picks-here/article_9627e78d-06f2-53ea-ad90-211ed1fdd189.html

July 15, 2021