

SALUTE TO TEACHERS

SUBMIT A PHOTO OF YOUR CHILD'S TEACHER AT
KMOV.com/Teachers

At Hazelwood West High School, one parent says teacher, Cynthia Patten always makes sure that students feel right at home. If you have a teacher you would like to honor, you would like to recognize, head to the kmov.com/teachers to submit a photo of them and tell us how they are going above and beyond, and we may be able to recognize that individual right here live on news 4.

County School Districts Navigate Re-Opening In Different Ways

Ferguson-Florissant’s school board decided last Wednesday their students are staying virtual—until at least January. The district is one of the county’s largest, and has a high percentage of Black students. Research shows Black Americans are at greater risk of coronavirus complications. Ferguson-Florissant is joined by other districts, like Maplewood Richmond-Heights and Hazelwood, that also have yet to bring their students back.
