

Let's honor some teachers! Tamyka Buchanan works in the Hazelwood School District. A parent of one of the students says, "She's a great teacher and she has made virtual learning easy for her kindergarten students. I have noticed a big improvement from not only my son but the other students as well.

Let's take time to honor teachers, shall we? Jerry Henry, works at the Arrowpoint Elementary School, in Hazelwood School District, one student says she's always kind and patient. If you want to honor a teacher, that you feel that is just going above and beyond during these challenging times, certainly send us a picture and go over to kmov.com/teacher, and tell us how they're doing and we're going the try to recognize them on the air and send a nice picture, i want to see the big smiles, get some air time out here.

Dashauna Mairidith goes from Soldan to Webster U as Suggs' scholar

Even as the COVID-19 pandemic rages on, Webster University recently announced it is investing over $1 million to offer 10 students a full-ride Dr. Donald M. Suggs Scholarship annually.

The school awards the scholarship to academically talented undergraduate students from ethnic groups that are under-represented in higher education.

The nine other students who received the same blessing this year are Machaela Brock, Francis Howell High School; Jessica Echols, Hazelwood West High School; Bolanle Akinyemi, Fort Zumwalt West High School; Juliette Ferch, Fox Senior High School; Khalisah Habeebullah, Francis Howell High School; Joi' Johnson, Edwardsville High School; Naba Yasir, Parkway South High School; Jalalah Muhammad, Collegiate School of Medicine; and Khyree Plair, Hazelwood Central Senior High School.

The scholarship named for Donald M. Suggs, publisher and executive editor of The St. Louis American and president of the St. Louis American Foundation. The foundation's 33rd Annual Salute to Excellence in Education Scholarship & Awards Virtual Gala Weekend will be celebrated online as free virtual events on Friday and Saturday, October 16 and 17 on stlamerican.com, the St. Louis American's Facebook page and YouTube channel. For additional details on how to participate, visit givebutter.com/SaluteEdu.