Credit transfer is ultimately up to the ACCEPTING college/university.

HOW TO EARN COLLEGE CREDIT

CREDIT FROM STLCC CAN TRANSFER TO BOTH PUBLIC AND PRIVATE COLLEGES AND UNIVERSITIES BOTH IN STATE AND OUT OF STATE.

CORE 42 SIMPLY ENSURES THAT THE CREDIT FROM THAT SPECIFIC CLASS WILL TRANSFER TO MISSOURI PUBLIC COLLEGES & UNIVERSITIES.

Credit transfer is ultimately up to the ACCEPTING college/university.

DUAL ENROLLMENT

Am I ready for dual enrollment?

Is my student ready for dual enrollment?

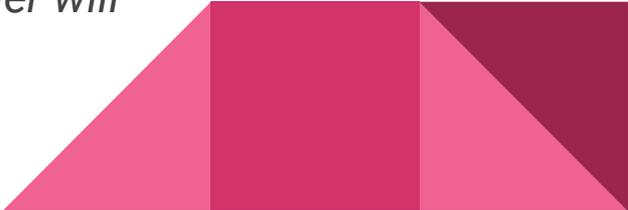

THE ACADEMICALLY MATURE STUDENT...

- Follows instructions as given.
 - Adheres to deadlines and due dates WITHOUT excuses.
 - Asks questions when they don't understand something.
 - Utilizes their resources, without prompting, in order to be successful with their academics

Am I ready for dual enrollment?

Is my student ready for dual enrollment?

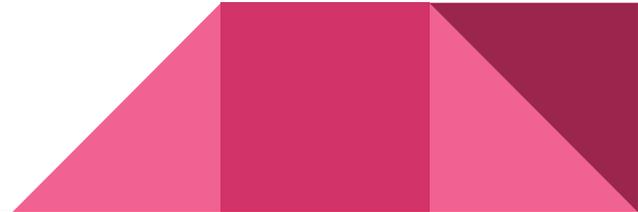

THE ACADEMICALLY ADVANCED STUDENT...

- Completes assignments & tasks without being prompted.
 - Has taken and passed more rigorous courses. (i.e. Honors & AP)
 - Adheres to deadlines and due dates WITHOUT excuses.
 - Has a academic routine for studying and completing assignments.
 - Has a G.P.A. of 3.0 or higher. Seniors with a 2.5 & higher will be considered

Do I automatically get to dual enroll?

No.

EVERY student must go through the application/approval process. This includes students who came through the HEMS 8th grade center.

Is Dual Enrollment free for all students?

No.

HEHS Students are approved for district paid dual enrollment.

Students who are not approved for district paid dual enrollment must self-pay. This is determined during the application process.

Can I take dual enrollment courses during any semester?

District-paid dual enrollment is only offered to HEHS students during the Fall and Spring semesters.

If a student chooses to take courses outside of the Fall or Spring they must have high school approval and self-pay for classes.

How to sign up for the Dual Enrollment application process.

- Complete the HEHS Dual Enrollment Interest Form.
 - Review the application process.
 - Accept the invite to the Google Classroom where you will be lead through the DE Application process. Go through the application process with Ms. Smith-Butler to select appropriate courses for the related semester.

Once You Have Been Approved....

- Complete DE Authorization Form for the Approved Courses.
- Attend the HEHS/STLCC advisor session to register for your courses.
- Follow the provided directions to order the necessary books for class.
- Double check to ensure that your HEHS schedule does not conflict with your College Courses.
- If you are a student-athlete, double check to ensure that you have the appropriate amount of class credits to be eligible.
 - BEGIN YOUR COLLEGE JOURNEY!!

THINGS TO BE MINDFUL OF..

DUAL ENROLLED STUDENTS CARRY THE RESPONSIBILITY OF TWO TYPES OF STUDENTS!!

YOU ARE A HSD HIGH SCHOOL STUDENT.

YOU ARE A STLCC COLLEGE STUDENT.

AS A DUAL ENROLLED HEHS STUDENT...

- Taking college classes is not an excuse for missing high school related tasks and assignments.
- You must keep up with your high school classes and requirements.
- IT IS YOUR RESPONSIBILITY TO COMMUNICATE WITH YOUR COUNSELOR, DUAL ENROLLMENT LIAISON, & TEACHERS.
- Students must maintain a 3.0 and above HEHS GPA to begin and continue dual enrollment. *Senior students must have a 2.5 to begin but maintain a 3.0 during dual enrollment.
- Student-Athletes must be enrolled in and pass 3.5 credits in order to be eligible for MSHSAA sanctions activities/sports.
- Students must maintain a clean discipline record.

AS A STLCC-FLORISSANT VALLEY STUDENT..

- Being a “high school student” is not an excuse for late work or missing college related tasks and assignments.
- It is your responsibility to utilize resources such as tutoring and labs. No one will force you to do so. SUPPORTS ARE AVAILABLE.
- IT IS YOUR RESPONSIBILITY TO COMMUNICATE WITH YOUR TEACHERS, ADVISOR, & DUAL ENROLLMENT LIAISON.

HEHS students who are placed on Academic Probation by STLCC or do not maintain a minimum STLCC GPA of 2.5 will have to sit out a semester from Dual Enrollment before reapplying.

District-paid dual enrollment IS NOT GUARANTEED.

All Hazelwood East students will be considered for district-paid dual enrollment during the review of your Hazelwood School District DE Application.

The district will not pay for students to retake any failed or dropped class.

All Hazelwood East students will have to submit a Student Dual Enrollment Tuition Payment Agreement form, signed by parent and student, before final approval is given for dual enrollment.

Transportation to and from classes are ultimately the student's responsibility.

There is a shuttle bus that runs on the days that Hazelwood Schools are in class. The shuttle leaves from EAST at 7:30am to Florissant Valley and at 12:20pm from Florissant Valley to EAST.

THERE ARE OFTEN NO EXCEPTIONS GIVEN FOR MISSED
DEADLINES AND ASSIGNMENTS.

You MUST keep up with your STLCC & HEHS classes and requirements.

Students reapply
every semester for dual enrollment approval.

I'm interested, so what should I do now?
