

St. Vincent is their connection to a new path onto a new road, leading to a healthier, more productive life.

the power of community connections

In a time of uncertainty, we are here to help youth in crisis.

FREE ONLINE PARENT & PROVIDER FORUMS

We believe in the Power of Connections

Join St. Vincent for our FREE online meeting for parents, service providers, and caregivers to share and discuss the best ways to support kids and families in crisis.

These forums are open to everyone, are free of charge, and offer participants the opportunity to share personal struggles and challenges, while care experts and leaders provide tools and support. Topics have included depression and anxiety, responsibility and awareness, building strong parent and child relationships, and emotional resiliency.

First & Third Monday Monthly
7:00-8:00pm

Facilitated by St. Vincent Home for Children

Program Coordinator Lawson (Cal) Calhoun, M.A., and Licensed Clinical Social Worker Bernice Thompson.
